Hengfeng Foster Children

At 13, C.X. is a quiet and shy kid. She feels uncomfortable staying with strangers. But when with familiar people, she becomes very active. She gets along well with her classmates at school, and teachers like her. Teachers say she behaves very well and is obedient. She always tries her best to finish the tasks teachers assign her. C.X. likes dancing class. She shows what she learns in dance class to foster grandma. During summer vacation, besides reading some books, C.X. played with children in the neighborhood, too.

C.Y. is 16 and was born with heart disease. These days, she really cares about her foster family's issues. When foster mom asks her opinion about some family issues, she expresses her idea. She also helps foster mom deal with some problems. She usually helps foster mom do some housework, like washing dishes, sweeping and mopping the floors, and doing laundry, when foster mom is busy with work. C.Y. didn't go to classroom at the welfare house during the summer vacation. Foster mom gave her some handiwork, like making handicraft and sewing ornaments.
